

ADARMANDO

Umbria Bianco

indicazione geografica tipica

A dream of producing a traditional white wine of great charm and elegance on Montefalco's hills comes true by a process of rediscovery and development. Connecting the past with the present, this wine is named after the kind, generous and stubborn grandfather Adarmando - a unique character is reminiscent in this wine.

Appellation	Umbria Bianco IGT
Production Area	Montefalco
Grape Varieties	100% Trebbiano Tabarrini clonal selection
Vineyard Exposure	South-East
Year of Planting	2006
Altitude	350 a.s.l.
Training System	Guyot
Numbers of Plants per hectare	4.800
Characteristics of the soil	Silty, clay
Yield per Hectare	55 quintals
Vinification	White-Wine vinification
Aging of wine	At least 12 months in steel
Aging in bottle	6 months
Number of bottles produced	10.000

